INTRODUCTION

The Archivo General de Indias Papeles de Cuba Legajo, 1795, materials consist of 201 photocopies of primarily official correspondence procured from the Library of Congress, Hispanic Division, in 1968. There are no restrictions on the materials and photocopies may be made for individual or scholarly use. However, for commercial or other uses where copyright infringement may be a consideration, permission for use must be obtained by the user from the copyright holder.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

This collection is comprised of photocopies of official Spanish correspondence concerning the activities of the United States, Great Britain, and Spain in Florida during the year 1814. Although most of the letters are written in Spanish, a few documents include English copies of reports and orders issued by Andrew Jackson and British commanders. The major topics of these letters are the Creek Indian uprising and the efforts of the British to remove the United States from Florida and Louisiana.
